

Name: _____ Date: _____ Per: _____

US History -- Chapter 14: Politics and Prosperity

Life is Good, but Danger's Ahead!

Life is Good!

President Hoover's Rugged Individualism can be defined as

The American Economy

All Stocks 1925: $ _____ All Stocks 1928: $ _____ All Stocks 1929: $ _____

Overall the economy in the late 1920s is:

What is welfare capitalism? What did it do/ what did it seek to address?

Danger Ahead!

Uneven Prosperity

Personal Debt

Playing the Stock Market

Speculation

Buying on the Margin

Too Many Goods, Too Little Demands

Trouble for Farmers and Workers

Name: _____ Date: _____ Per: _____

Exit Slip -- *Life is Good, but Danger's Ahead!

Why did most Americans in the late 1920s think the economy was healthy?

What were the danger signs of the late 1920 economy?

Name: _____ Date: _____ Per: _____

Exit Slip -- *Life is Good, but Danger's Ahead!

Why did most Americans in the late 1920s think the economy was healthy?

What were the danger signs of the late 1920 economy?